YOUTH MINISTRY RESOURCES DESIGNED TO HELP TEENAGERS KNOW CHRIST THROUGH HIS WORD

Dear Valued Customer,

In the last few years, NavPress has renewed its commitment to creating biblically based discipleship and spiritual formation materials to help people change from the inside out. As a result, we've met with other organizations that produce similarly focused products.

Student Life is one such organization. Located in Birmingham, Alabama, Student Life sees more than 60,000 students and youth leaders yearly attend Student Life Summer Camps where they get to know Christ better through His Word.

Due to overwhelming demand, Student Life began producing Bible studies, leader's guides, and other popular products that have only been available to direct customers—until now.

I'm excited to let you know that NavPress and Student Life have entered into a strategic alliance that allows NavPress to sell select Student Life products into Christian retail.

Take some time to look at the Bible studies, student journals, 31 Verse devotional journals, and DVDs offered in this catalog. We look forward to providing these key products exclusively to Christian retail and your customers for the first time.

Sincerely,

Mike Miller
President of NavPress
