Christ's Call TO REFORM the Church

MACARTHUR

Christ's Call to Reform the Church

Timeless Demands From the Lord to His People

JOHN MACARTHUR

As many have said, the church must always be reforming. It must continually move closer to a truer, more faithful expression of the gospel. The risen Christ's powerful letters to the seven churches in Revelation are a guide to just that.

Based on John MacArthur's exposition of these letters, Christ's Call to Reform the Church is a plea to the modern church to heed these divine warnings, to reform before it succumbs to the kinds of compromise and error that invite God's judgment.

Christ's Call to Reform the Church admonishes today's church to learn from the mistakes God's people have made in the past, rather than commit them again. The Word of God has many benefits, one of which is that it reveals our blind spots. That is the goal of this work. May it be embraced by Christians everywhere, spurring them toward the God-honoring, grace-driven work of continued reformation.

UNIQUE FEATURES

- Clarion call from John MacArthur for the church to reform before it invites God's judgment
- Ties the admonitions of Revelation 1-3 to the modern church

How to counter the lies that keep you from abundant living.

Satan is the master deceiver, and his lies are endless. The lies Christian women believe are at the root of most of their struggles.

“Many women live under a cloud of personal guilt and condemnation,” says Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth. “Many are in bondage to their past. Others are gripped by fear of rejection and a longing for approval. Still others are emotional prisoners.”

In the best-selling Lies Women Believe, Nancy exposes these areas of deception most commonly believed by Christian women—lies about God, sin, priorities, marriage and family, emotions, and more. She then sheds light on how we can be delivered from bondage and set free to walk in God’s grace, forgiveness, and abundant life.

Nancy offers the most effective weapon to counter and overcome Satan’s lies: God’s truth!

All Together Different

Upholding the Church's Unity
 While Honoring Our Individual Identities

J. BRIAN TUCKER & JOHN KOESSLER

E Pluribus Unum: "Out of many, one." This motto is emblazoned on the Great Seal of the United States, but it could be the church's model, too. Unfortunately, the daily experience of many Christians and churches feels like the opposite: out of one, many. We are increasingly aware of what makes us different from others, and it is hurting the church and its witness.

All Together Different will help readers understand why we find it so difficult "to just get along." Drawing from research on personal and group identity, it equips readers to navigate a culture that often pays lip service to the value of diversity but struggles to foster constructive dialogue and mutual respect. With clear writing and real-life stories, All Together Different translates social identity theory for pastors, church leaders, and ministry practitioners, exposing it to the light of biblical and theological reflection.

UNIQUE FEATURES

- Deft, gentle-yet-firm handling of a difficult social issue
- Weaves the multiple threads of identity confusion into one work with a Scriptural answer

AUDIENCE

- Core evangelical readers
- Socially-conscious Christians
- Those who live/work with people with identity issues
- Pastors and church leaders

J. BRIAN TUCKER is Associate Professor of New Testament at Moody Theological Seminary-Michigan. He has authored several books, including You Belong to Christ and Remain in Your Calling. He has been a church planter, senior pastor, teaching pastor, and worship leader during his twenty years of pastoral ministry.

JOHN KOESSLER serves as chair of the pastoral studies department at Moody Bible Institute. He is an award-winning author who has written thirteen books and numerous magazine articles. Prior to joining the Moody faculty, John served as a pastor of Valley Chapel in Illinois for nine years. He and his wife Jane live in Indiana.

The Way to Brave

Shaping a David Faith for Today's Goliath World

ANDY MCQUITTY

Want to grow in courage?

It's getting harder and harder to be a Christian in our post-Christian culture. As a pastor of 35 years, Andy is seeing the church wake from a "Christian Pax Americana" to an era of intensified hostility.

Based on David's courage before Goliath, The Way to Brave helps readers face the giants looming over us today, such as secularism and relativism. Bent on banishing Christian influence from public life, their power is shocking, their reach expansive, and their deployment quick. But still they are no match for our God.

The Way to Brave guides readers through the five ways God prepared David to be intrepid in facing the giant who opposed him. The qualities and experiences David possessed are the ones Christians need today. Pastor Andy McQuitty will walk you through what those are and how they can mark your life, bolstering you for the storms ahead.

AUDIENCE

Core evangelical reader

ANDY MCQUITTY spent his high school years in Paris, Texas where his father served as senior minister of a Presbyterian church. Andy is husband to Alice and father to Julie, Elizabeth, Bonnie, Jonathan, and Jeffrey. And most recently, grandpa to Drew and Madeline. Andy is an avid reader, tennis court rat, golfer, and writer; but his favorite pastime is spending time with his family.

Where I End

A Story of Tragedy, Truth, and Rebellious Hope

KATHERINE ELIZABETH CLARK

“Those who are hidden in Jesus, though they suffer, will discover a more beautiful ending—or should I say beginning—than they ever could imagine.”

Katherine Clark was just an average wife and mother with two young children when she was in a tragic playground accident in late May 2009. A little boy playing on the jungle gym fell and landed on Kate’s head, knocking her over and snapping her neck. Kate was paralyzed from the neck down. The doctors diagnosed her as a quadriplegic and said she would never walk again.

This terrifying prognosis could have been the end of the story. But instead, God chose to work a profound miracle in Kate’s life and in the life of her family.

Where I End tells the incredible story. Kate describes how God’s presence carried her through the trying journey of re-learning to walk, both physically and spiritually. Throughout, she shares the deep theological truths that sustained her as she and her family traveled this difficult road.

For fans of Ann Voskamp, Sheldon Vanauken, and Joni Eareckson Tada, Where I End offers hope, encouragement, and a timely reminder of who Jesus is: God with us. In a reflective, literary style, Kate invites readers to see pain and suffering within the context of God’s loving, tender, powerful care—and there find hope.

UNIQUE FEATURES

A memoir/narrative made up of short reflections

AUDIENCE

Christian men and women (ages 35–50) looking for a simple yet theologically deep resource to help them reconcile a life of pain and suffering with their faith in a good God. They also love memoirs or narrative nonfiction.

KATHERINE ELIZABETH CLARK is wife to a gifted theologian and mom to two bright kids, all of whom bring merriment and humor to her days. A native of Detroit, Kate has had the privilege of living in several great cities, including Dallas, Toronto, Grand Rapids, and Chicago. Kate studied at the University of Michigan, Wayne State University, and Dallas Theological Seminary. With a background in psychology, she has spent much of the last twenty years working and writing for a nationwide Christian radio and counseling ministry. When she’s not writing, Kate enjoys spending time outdoors, cooking new recipes with her kids, and immersing herself in books. The Clark family currently resides in Wheaton, IL.

Longing for Motherhood

Holding On to Hope in the Midst of Childlessness

CHELSEA PATTERSON SOBOLIK

Childlessness remains a taboo topic in today's culture, especially in Christian circles. Many women feel isolated, ashamed, or uncertain of how to reconcile this trial with a loving God. The death of the dream of motherhood—whether from infertility, barrenness, miscarriage, or the loss of a child—is one of the hardest journeys women can walk through.

In Longing for Motherhood, Chelsea Patterson Sobolik speaks to these burdens specifically. She shares vulnerably about her own journey of childlessness and how she has ultimately come to view her story through the lens of Scripture and our hope in Christ. While remaining tender and empathetic toward suffering and longing, she discusses the comfort we have in knowing that the Lord is sovereign over all, and that His love is sufficient to carry us through any and every situation.

A timely book for women struggling with childlessness, as well as for pastors, friends, and family who want to care for them well, Longing for Motherhood is a tender, truthful companion for a difficult journey.

UNIQUE FEATURES

- Includes Discussion and Application Section
- Chapter on Alternative Journeys to Motherhood

AUDIENCE

Christian women who are childless (single women, married women without children) and people connected to those without children (family, friends, church, etc.)

CHELSEA PATTERSON SOBOLIK lives and works in Washington, D.C., where she spends her days focusing on adoption and foster care policy for the U.S. House of Representatives. Her passion for adoption stems from her personal story of being adopted as a newborn from Bucharest, Romania. After growing up in North Carolina with five adopted siblings, Chelsea attended Liberty University. She has written for The Gospel Coalition, 9 Marks, The Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission, and the Patheos Evangelical Channel, on a wide variety of issues including culture, current events, and Christian living.

Small Church Essentials

Field-Tested Principles for Leading a Healthy Congregation of under 250

KARL VATERS

A book for the average pastor.

Big churches get all the love. Articles, books, conferences—they mostly feature leaders of large congregations. Yet big churches are actually only a small part of the ecclesiastical landscape. In fact, more than 90 percent of churches have fewer than 250 people. That means small churches actually play a huge part in what God is doing in America.

Small Church Essentials is for leaders of these smaller congregations. It encourages them to steward their role well, debunks myths about small churches, and offers principles for leading a dynamic, healthy, small church.

Based on the popular six-hour seminar that Karl Vaters conducts with church leaders across the country, Small Church Essentials will affirm small church leaders and show them how to identify what they do well, and how to do it even better.

UNIQUE FEATURES

- A study guide to help ministries start the discussion on the book's principles
- Strikes a balance between calling out strengths and weaknesses of the local church, without making size the goal or measure of success

AUDIENCE

Small Church Essentials is for a large segment of church leaders: pastors of churches under 250. Most of the materials and resources being produced are for large churches (or how to get there). This book is for the small church without trying to change the size of the church.

KARL VATERS is the author of the book The Grasshopper Myth. He writes for christianitytoday.com several times a week through his blog, Pivot. He's also the founder of newsmallchurch.com, a ministry that encourages, connects and equips innovative Small Church pastors.

The Gospel for Muslims

An Encouragement to Share Christ with Confidence

THABITI ANYABWILE

How to meet a critical need: sharing the gospel with Muslims.

There are over three million Muslims living in the United States today. Soon, if not already, you will have Muslim neighbors and coworkers. Does the thought of reaching out to them with the gospel make you nervous? How can you effectively communicate the good news with such large theological differences? The Gospel for Muslims can help make sharing your faith easier than you think.

Thabiti Anyabwile, who is himself a convert from Islam to Christianity, instructs you in ways to discuss the good news of Christ with your neighbors and friends. The Gospel for Muslims allows you to focus on the people rather than the religious system. Meant for the average Christian, it is not an exhaustive apologetic or comparative study of Christianity and Islam. Rather, it compellingly stirs confidence in the gospel, equipping you with the basics necessary to communicate clearly, boldly, and winsomely.

UNIQUE FEATURES

- New cover design
- Updated Illustrations
- Fresh treatment of radical jihad
- New discussion on the rising Muslim population in the United States

AUDIENCE

- Core evangelical audience
- Church leaders
- Those preparing for missions trips to Muslim countries

This I Know

Trusting Your Unknown Future to a Known God

LAURA DINGMAN

Do you worry often about what the future holds? Do you long for peace but don't know how to have it? Do you know factually that God is trustworthy, but wonder practically how to live that out?

This I Know is a Bible study for those who want to walk upon the water. It guides women into biblical truths about the character of God so they can step faithfully into the unknown, confident in the God they do know. Corrie Ten Boom said it best, "Never be afraid to trust your unknown future to a known God."

Join Laura Dingman as she journeys through Acts 17, James 1, Habakkuk 3, Psalm 46, 2 Chronicles 20, and Joshua 3, diving into subjects like abundance in Jesus, the goodness of God in trial, and the value of remembering God's past faithfulness. Each week offers opportunity for prayer, interaction with the biblical text, journaling, and group discussion. Using Scripture, insights from her own life, and prompts for reflection, Laura points readers continuously to the unchanging character of God, helping them surrender their lives to Him and give Him all their trust.

UNIQUE FEATURES

- A six-week Bible study that walks readers through Biblical truths they can cling tightly to in the midst of the unknown
- Each week will begin with an introduction outlining a major truth about knowing God. Following the introduction, there will be five daily lessons unpacking statements about who God is
- There is an accompanying song and video by the author called "This I Know"

AUDIENCE

This I Know is geared to a woman in her twenties or thirties. She is a follower of Christ who struggles with worry and anxiety, fearing what her future holds. She desires peace and longs to trust God at a deeper level, but doesn't know where to begin exactly.

LAURA DINGMAN spends most of her time creating and leading worship experiences that help connect people with the story of God. She has served in vocational ministry as the creative arts director at The Creek, a large church in Indianapolis, for over a decade. She loves to show people where their story intersects with God's story. She is the author of Life Rhythms: Learning to Live in God-Centered Time and I Am Found: Quitting the Game of Hide and Seek with God, Ourselves, and Others. You can learn more about her journey and connect with her at lauradingingman.com.

Who Do You Say that I AM?

A Fresh Encounter for Deeper Faith

BECKY HARLING

We can speak in abstracts all day long. We can ponder who Jesus is and what it means to follow Him. But he wants our confession. He wants to know, “Who do you say that I AM?”

How we answer defines our lives both now and forever. This study in the “I AM” statements of Jesus will help women move from knowing about Him to knowing Him personally. Guiding them through significant questions Jesus asks in the Gospels—and the answers He himself provides—it will help readers:

- Realize the truth of who Jesus really is
- Grow in their ability to trust God and rely on Him fully
- Find the calm and peace promised in Scripture despite life circumstances

Becky Harling has years of experience as a Bible teacher and women’s ministry leader. She empathizes with women and knows how to make Scripture come alive. Who Do You Say that I AM? will draw women deep into the Word for a true encounter with Christ, helping them become more confident, calm, and courageous in their faith.

UNIQUE FEATURES

- An 8-week Bible study centered around significant questions that Jesus asked and showing how His “I Am” statements are the answers to those questions
- Perfect for individual use, small group use and use within the setting of a larger group Bible study
- To help readers experience His presence, a contemporary worship song is included in each day as a suggestion to bring into their study

AUDIENCE

- Women between the ages of 20–55 who desire to study the Word of God and grow in their relationship with Christ.
- Women who are in a crisis of faith, who need to reanalyze what they believe about Jesus Christ and His role in their lives.

BECKY HARLING has a degree in Biblical Literature and is a sought-after speaker and Bible teacher at women’s conferences. Becky is a gifted communicator with a passion for helping women find life transformation through Jesus. “One of the most urgent needs in the church today is for a crisp and comprehensive knowledge of the Bible’s storyline. To grasp how the sacred history moves from Genesis to Revelation not only brings fresh insight into how the Bible hangs together, and what each part contributes to the whole, but also is crucial for developing a Christian worldview. Colin Smith has met these needs admirably. I hope these volumes will circulate widely and be read and re-read.”

—D. A. CARSON, research professor of the New Testament at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, cofounder of The Gospel Coalition
